Award of Merit

When the American National Federation of Press Women awarded a special Certificate of Merit to David Sarnoff, President of the Radio Corporation of America and Chairman of the Board of the National Broadcasting Company, they said it was for: "Disregarding the popular fallacy that radio listeners have the average mentality of children; and for having had the courage to inaugurate a sustaining programme series of symphony concerts under the leadership of world-famous Arturo Toscanini. This major step is another indication of the vision of the man, who has many firsts to his credit in the radio industry."
