 Concerto Grosso, No. 12, Op. 6 Handel

Largo
 Allegro
 Aria Variatio
 Largo Allegro
 A "Concerto Grosso" is an elaborate piece of music planned for a group of solo instruments accompanied by an orchestra of strings. Listeners should note that, despite the pompous title, this music is avowedly popular, and was intended to appeal to the ordinary listener in the eighteenth century. The ordinary listener of to-day will enjoy Handel's music as much as did the great composer's friends and supporters.
