were worth so much money and not so many ounces of meat. In Canada, well-off people can buy better grade meat."

What, No Eggs?

"What's worrying me," confided one, "is that New Zealanders drink tea seven times a day, and I'm not at all fond of it. As a matter of fact, I've brought a pound of coffee with me because I heard that New Zealand coffee had a lot of chicory with it. But I'm dying to try your milk. We've been told how wonderful it is. You don't have it marginised, do you?"

We said we were fairly certain we didn't. What was it?

"Oh, it has the cream all mixed up with the milk, so that when you leave it standing the cream doesn't rise to the top." We have noticed that sometimes very little cream rises to the top, but decided that the fact that some does proves that it can't be marginised.

"Do you get eggs in Canada these days?" we queried, cautiously.

"Eggs! Yes, plenty of them. Why?"

We broke the news gently. This is just one of the surprises in store for these young wives who have come to make their home in this country, and who are now scattered over the Dominion from North Auckland to South Otago.

THE LADY is the somewhat misleading title of a drama scheduled to begin soon from 3ZB on Friday evenings at 7.45. This is the story of Tess O'Brien, who rose from the slums and found a place for herself in the world, and of her benefactor, who was young and attractive. The all-star cast of The Lady is headed by Nell Sterling in the role of Tess O'Brien.
