

WE WHO ARE NOT ABOUT TO DIE

If you have tears, hold them;
If you have cheers, hold them.
This war's not won yet.
Men still walk into the steel
and the flames and the concussion;
And some don't come back.
They'll keep doing this till VICTORY.

Can we who are not about to die
Hold anything back?

Can we keep money in banks,
under mattresses, lying idle
When it might

Save Lives.

Salute these Soldiers of yours
through the Victory Loan.

Do your part sincerely,
urgently.

Prove that you place Victory and Peace
above everything.

The swifter the winning

The fewer lonely crosses;

Lend and Keep Faith.
