ELECTRIC IRONS

At present, of course, some of the goods Begg's normally supply are difficult to obtain. Despite their preoccupation with the needs of war, Begg's and their suppliers are already making plans for the future after Victory is won. The name of Begg's will be associated not only with the famous products they sold in the past, but also with many new developments destined to benefit every household. Housewives throughout New Zealand will demand the latest electrical household helps—one of them being the Morphy-Richards Electric Iron.

This world-famous iron will be better than ever—more convenient and efficient—the iron you'll be proud to own! Decide NOW to own a "Morphy-Richards" some day and plan to pay for it by adding to your National War Savings regularly.

How to Captivate a Scornful Husband

You have our sincere sympathy if your husband looks scornfully at the meal you have taken so much trouble to prepare for him. A man's just like that! But you can get round him—if you give him one of the tempting Junket desserts which are featured in the NEW Renco Recipe Book. You will bring back that little grin to his lips, that look of youth to the eyes.

It is really surprising the large number of tasty desserts you can make with Renco, inexpensive, easy to make, always enjoyable.
