De Witt's Antacid Powder is so quick acting that one dose is usually enough to relieve an upset stomach. In fact, quick relief from the pain and discomfort of digestive troubles is always at hand-if you have this reliable family remedy in your medicine cupboard. RELIEF! That's what you really want and you get it, because De Witt's . Antacid Powder consistently does these three important things:-

Firstly, it neutralises excess gastric acidity. This relieves the pain and distress you feel after eating, when your stomach is sour.

Then, it soothes and settles the stomach. Consequently your next meal does not mean further trouble for an already upset stomach.

Finally, it protects the inflamed lining, and thus helps Mother Nature, the greatest healer of all, to put things right.

So, if a sour, upset stomach is turning you off food, or if heartburn and flatulence take all pleasure out of eating, get a tin of De Witt's Antacid Powder from your chemist to-day. You will find in this popular antacid remedy the answer to most "tummy" troubles.
