

THE PROGRAMMES

EDYTH ROBERTS, Australian soprano, who will sing operatic excerpts by Gounod, Verdi, and Puccini, from 1YA at 7.47 p.m. on Friday, March 7

Right: RAE JENKINS, who conducts the BBC Light Orchestra in a programme of music from 3ZR Greymouth at 7.36 p.m. on Friday, March 7. He used to conduct the BBC Midland Light Orchestra, and a few months ago took over Charles Shadwell's duties in London, including the horseplay in ITMA

BBC photograph

...se three
...in South
...2YA at
...ys.

...gers' Session, conducted by Rod Talbot from Station 12B
...ys, the soldier patients in the military annexe at the Auck-
...weekly supplies of flowers sent in by listeners to brighten
Rod Talbot is second from the left in the picture.

YELLA PESSL (harpsichordist), and FRANCES BLAISDELL (flautist), two of the soloists in J. S. Bach's Concerto in A Minor for Clavier, Flute, and Violin, which 2YC will broadcast at 8.24 p.m. on Wednesday, March 5.

...hograph
...Wellington
...in Auck-
...on Sun-
...Brahms's
...ion 1YA

KITTY GALBRAITH (contralto) will sing lieder by Schumann from 4YA on Monday, March 3, at 8.15 p.m., in a programme which also includes "Scenes of Childhood" and the Piano Quartet

JAN VAN DER GUCHT (tenor), who is featured as one of the "BBC Personalities" in the For My Lady programme to be heard from 4YA at 10.40 a.m. on Monday, March 3. In spite of his name he is an Englishman who has never lived out of the country. He has been heard here in BBC recorded programmes