Preventable Deaths

F New Zealanders knew they were to be smitten by a plague which would cause in the coming year some 200 deaths and impair the health of several thousand others, they would take measures to prevent it. This is the attitude of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce towards road accidents, which annually take such a toll, and, in the belief that public education is the only preventative measure, the organisation has prepared a comprehensive publicity campaign, which will be inaugurated by the president in a national broadcast at 6.45 p.m. on Monday, August 18.
