

A TYPICAL

Glaxo

PRODUCT

This little boy is a typical Glaxo product — with sturdy limbs, straight back and strong bones. To-day, after 30 years experience, New Zealand mothers still choose Glaxo as the best possible substitute for, or complement to, breast-feeding.

SUNSHINE GLAXO
For the young baby.

FULL CREAM GLAXO
For the baby over 3 months' old.

FAREX
The ideal food from 6 months (weaning time) to 3 years.

Before Baby Comes — And After

Send, confidentially, for free copy of the Glaxo Baby Book — a sound guide to the care of the infant.
