hand lotion

was preceded by intensive Scientific Research

In the well equipped laboratories of Hansells' Ltd., long thought and scientific testing was given to the formula for Hansell's Hand Lotion before it was finally placed on the market. Every quality required in a perfect hand lotion was carefully considered . . . and the result was a perfect hand lotion, soothing, whitening, healing and beautifying. That was five years ago. Since then, so popular has Hansell's Hand Lotion been that enthusiastic users have tried it for other purposes and found it excellent also for the following uses. (1) As a Powder Base. (2) For sunburn and as a complexion lotion. (3) For men both before and after shaving.

HANSELLS invites you . . .
