TOOTAL FABRICS

Sheer glamour, this party blouse style, borrowed from the Victorians! Why not have it copied right away and show off your pretty shoulders?

Robia is specially designed for just such a charming fashion. For all its delicate air, it's actually very durable and is branded 'Tebilized' which means it has been given power to resist and recover from creasing similar to that possessed naturally by wool. You'll vote the pastel colours and light-hearted designs delightful; perfect for frocks and lingerie, too. What's more, Robia is just as resistant to fading and shrinking as any other Tootal guaranteed fabric.
