The new Health Postage Stamps now on sale depict London's EROS fountain in Piccadilly Circus. Eros, Greek god of love, symbolises happy, healthy childhood — the purpose of New Zealand's Health Camps.

The good food, fresh air and sunshine of New Zealand's Health Camps, with their rest and exercise, soon restore to health and happiness school age children suffering from malnutrition or convalescing. Health Camps depend largely on the sale of Health Postage Stamps to keep up their work. You can help. Use Health Postage stamps on all your mail — and Xmas parcels, too!
