NEW ZEALAND LISTENER, JULY 16

*Have you seen
the new fluorescent lighting?*

Most modern offices and factories have it to-day and here's the reason. Fluorescent lighting requires only 1/3rd the current consumption of ordinary lamps for the equivalent lighting, and for the average user the saving shown on the yearly account is considerable. Properly installed, it gives a shadowless, glare-free form of lighting, giving improved vision, more efficient working conditions and consequently less liability to accidents. NEECO is in a position to meet your needs for fluorescent lighting equipment. But don't delay... the demand is considerable! Get in touch with your electrical dealer now, or write to your nearest branch of—
