

ready for use this month.

Once it is in commission it will open up another fine expanse of country to week-end trappers—a track is to be made from Totara Flats up to Hector Forks and the upper waters of the Waiohina, hitherto one of the most inaccessible areas in the Taranaki. The new shelter will be the seventh hut built in that country. Huts already established are Alpha, Cone, Tauherenikau, Kime, Field's, and Dobson's. Kime Hut, built above the 4000 feet contour, is the highest in the area.
