Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.

2ZB's new "Tempo Time" at 8.45 p.m. on Thursdays is composed by Doug. Harris. This session should be a "solid sender" for Wellington "hep cats," and will contain much of interest for other listeners as well.

Friendly old "Doctor Mac" will be on the air again at nine o'clock tonight over all the Commercial stations. This lovable old man is one of the longest established radio feature characters over the N.Z. Commercial Radio.

In many ways O. Henry was to literature what Stephen Foster was to music. Both drew skilled pictures from life and expressed aptly the philosophy of a new nation growing to world status. Tusitala tells another O. Henry story from 1ZB at 7.45 this evening.

It is said that when President Theodore Roosevelt introduced Kate Smith to our King and Queen, he said, "This is Kate Smith—and this is America." Kate Smith is a typical American, who thinks, acts, and sings the songs of a typical American. It is claimed she has launched more real American song hits than any other popular vocalist. Listen to her as she sings from 4ZB tonight at six o'clock.
