

BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS

This page describes some of the new books published in New Zealand by A. H. & A. W. REED. They provide an excellent selection of gifts for Christmas. Cut out this page for reference and make a point of giving New Zealand books this Christmas.

Only some of the many new REED books can be described here. You are invited to write for complete illustrated lists of all the new titles. Bookshops throughout New Zealand will have all these titles on sale in good time for Christmas.

HYSTERIC NEW ZEALAND

John Magurk and Terence Journet have written this completely ridiculous history of New Zealand. You will agree that this is one of the funniest books you have read. Many illustrations. 8/6

THE STORY OF CANTERBURY

A. H. Reed is the author of this fine, new history of the Canterbury Province. As readable as a novel, it makes the pioneer days live again. Many illustrations. 20/-

THE STORY OF NEW ZEALAND. 4th edition. 20/-

THE STORY OF OTAGO. Still available. 20/-

JOHN JONES

By Alfred Eccles and A. H. Reed. One of Otago's most colourful figures comes to life in this new biography. Fully entertaining, it includes much new material and is illustrated. 7/6

THE STREETS OF MY CITY

F. L. Irvine-Smith's outstanding account of Wellington life, now in its 2nd large edition. Telling the story of the city's streets, the book abounds in entertainment and romance. Many plates. 20/-

HIGH COUNTRY DAYS

By Peter Newton, author of "Wayleggo." An enthralling, true-to-life picture of a season's work on a lonely, high-country sheep station. Many photographs. 15/-

"WAYLEGGO." Now in its 3rd edition. 12/6

PILGRIMAGE

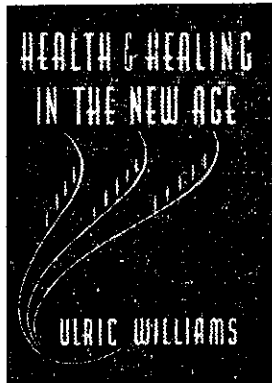

A Biography of Canon A. S. Webb, by Alice F. Webb. A fascinating record of the life of an Anglican clergyman who took up his work in the 70-mile Bush of Hawke's Bay in the early days of the Scandinavian settlement. Illustrated. 12/6

MARGARET

This is a memorial volume to Margaret Sullivan, daughter of the Manse and a trained nurse, who was killed in an accident in the Southern Alps. A year later her diary was recovered under the snow. Illustrated. 10/6

LAZARUS AND OTHER POEMS

Poems by Ruth Gilbert and wood engravings by E. Mervyn Taylor. This is a book of charm and distinction. Ruth Gilbert has won the Jessie Mackay award twice for her poems. (Ready this month.) 6/-

BOOKS BY DOCTORS

Health and Healing in the New Age. Dr. Utric Williams has taken his earlier book, Hints on Healthy Living, which has been out of print for some years, and revised it completely, adding a wealth of new material at the same time. Recipes are included. 15/-

Later Notes from a Backblocks Hospital. This is the 4th book by Dr. G. M. Smith, written before he left Hokitika, where he had worked for 35 years. It is as entertaining and as provocative as his earlier books. Illustrated by Olivia Spencer Bower. (Ready December.) 12/6

Money, Medicine and the Masses. Dr. Albert D. G. Blanc writes fearlessly and often amusingly about many aspects of health in New Zealand at the present time. 2nd large edition. 10/6

Reminiscences of a Physician. Dr. Bernard Myers is a New Zealander who has practised in London for many years. He was in charge of the N.Z. Military Hospital (World War 1) and writes of the many eminent people he has known. Illustrated. 10/6

GARDEN AND NATURE

Garden with Matthews. J. W. Matthews is Editor of The New Zealand Gardener and writes here on many aspects of successful gardening in New Zealand. Wise, refreshing comments and many illustrations. 5/-

Garden Treasures. Also by J. W. Matthews. 12/6

Floral Art. Mrs. G. M. Lankshear is a widely-experienced florist and she gives full instructions regarding flower show exhibits, flower arrangements, wiring flowers, wreaths, sprays, bouquets, etc. Many illustrations. 4/6

New Zealand Garden Dictionary. J. W. Matthews's handy and popular guide to gardening in New Zealand, arranged in alphabetical order. Fifth edition, completely revised and greatly enlarged. 3/9

Nature in New Zealand. A handy series of books with interesting text and many illustrations. Pocket size.

Native Birds, by Charles Masefield. 5/-

Native Plants, by Charles Masefield. 5/-
