The subject of the radio portrait in today's Women's Hour is Hans Anderson, well loved writer of children's stories.

* * *

At 8.30 this evening 1ZB recalls some of last year's outstanding song successes, in "Favourites of '49."

* * *

"Doctor to Savage" is the title of tonight's episode of "Appointment with Fate" from 3ZB at 6 p.m. It tells the story of a man's sacrifice of home comforts and pleasures, of a great career in music and the Church, to go to Central Africa to tend the spiritual and material needs of the natives.

* * *

Few American light composers have written more appealing waltzes than Irving Berlin. For those who enjoy Berlin's music, a session of his waltzes will be presented at 7.30 this evening from 2ZA.
