TWO POEMS

Adolf Hitler

*He emerged out of chaos,
Built his world to plan,
Stood and spoke from a dais
That envy and hate ruled man.*
—Robert Solway.

Triolet

*Men who croon I detest,
And swing I abhor.
Like a musical pest
Men who croon I detest,
Shall we never have rest
From this radio bore?
Men who croon I detest,
And swing I abhor.*
—John Doe.

BOXING NOTES

Move Into Camp + Henry Did His Job + Personal Items Sloane Training Again

NEW ZEALAND light-weight champion Jack Jarvis has exchanged the gloves for the rifle. He is at present in camp at Trentham with the Second Echelon.

Syd Sloane is back in training with hopes of obtaining more fights in New Zealand. Like Mudgway and Pascoe, he is at present "on the job" at Playland.

"Dynamite" Henry Armstrong is still handing out sleeping draughts. Recently he accounted for H. Montanez by the short cut route, in what was called a "slashing affray." Henry must have been annoyed at the Boxing Commission's hints that he was being too careful of his title.

Ex-light-heavyweight champion Harold Reeve, well known throughout the Dominion, is another boxer in the Forces. Until recently he was living in the Manawatu district. The boxers are certainly well represented in camp.

The Council Secretary, George Aldridge, is tripping to Australia this month for a holiday.

Frank O'Neill, ex-light-weight champion of New Zealand, and now a mine owner at Runanga, was a visitor to Wellington for the races. He wears well, and still looked fit enough for the ring.

Reduction In Rail Fares For Trips To Exhibition

Continuing its policy of helping New Zealanders to see their wonderful Centennial Exhibition at Wellington, the Railway Department is granting special fares which are substantially below the ordinary rates — a reduction ranging up to about 25 per cent., according to distance.

These tickets will be issued from February 1 to February 29, inclusive, and will be available for return for 2 weeks from date of issue. (They will not be available for travel by the "Limited" expresses).

Parties of not fewer than six persons travelling together can buy first class return tickets at second class rates or second class tickets at three-quarters of the ordinary second class return fare.
