

LOOK BEFORE YOU LISTEN

Some Suggestions For The Week

Cuba, Where the Cigars
Come from + Two Mezzo-
Sopranos + Mendelssohn's
"Elijah"

THE CAPITAL, and Capitol, of Cuba — Havana, where the cigars come from. Listeners who are interested in the island republic of the West Indies should tune in to 2YD on Tuesday evening, March 26, at 9.20

Spencer Digby, photograph
THE ROYAL WELLINGTON CHORAL SOCIETY, is to present Mendelssohn's sacred oratorio "Elijah" in the Wellington Town Hall on March 30. The oratorio will be relayed through 2YC at 8 p.m. Stanley Oliver (above) will be the conductor

Spencer Digby, photograph
MOLLY ATKINSON, a mezzo-soprano who will be heard from 3YA on Sunday, March 24, at 9.29 p.m. She will present a recital of ballads by British composers

INDEX

Akron Celebrates 12	Programmes:
Aunt Daisy 44-45-48	Commercial 49-53
Books 15	National 13-41
Boxing Notes 55	Overseas 54
Boys and Girls 34	Puzzles 16
Bungin' Them In 10	Shadow of
Chart 28-29	The Swastika 11
Crime Pays Her 24	Shortwaves 7
Do You Know? 27	Sport 38
DX Notes 37	Static 6
Editorial 12	Things to Come 6-7
Films 20	War Diary 2-4
Highlights 5	Women 42-43
Letters 30	Your Garden 41
Musical	ZB News 46-47
Indigestion 8
Oscar Natzke
Comes Home 9

Spencer Digby, photograph
AUDREY BOWIE (above) will provide a mezzo-soprano interlude to the band programme from 2YA on Friday evening, March 29. She contributes a bracket of four songs, and will be heard at 9.46