 "Siegfried Idyll" .. Wagner

Before making his home at Bayreuth in 1872, Wagner lived for some years at Tribschen, near Lucerne, in Switzerland. Here, in 1869, a son was born to him and his second wife; it was that auspicious event which inspired this Idyll. Its composition and the rehearsals were kept a secret from Frau Wagner, and performed as a surprise to her outside the villa. Wagner himself conducted, and the faithful Hans Richter took the trumpet part. Scored for a comparatively small orchestra, the little piece is based on themes which are, with one exception, taken from the music-drama of Siegfried, completed in the previous year. The one exception is an old German Cradle Song which Wagner introduced with the happiest effect.
