8.30 CONCERT PROGRAMME Recording: Sir Hamilton Harty conducting the London Symphony Orchestra, "King Lear" Overture

Berlioz was a keen lover of Shakespeare, and this Overture is a musical reflection of the tragedy of "King Lear." We can hear the outline of the story in it—from "every inch a king" to Lear's last words, "Pray you, undo this button; thank you, sir . . .", unfolding the sad tale of filial wickedness and the poor old King's madness. The overture contains some of the most inspired music that Berlioz ever wrote.
