HOW MUCH DO YOU KNOW?

HERE are seven questions, one for each day of the coming week, and bearing on some item in one or other of that day's programme which appear in this issue of The Listener. You can check up your solutions by referring to page 55, on which will be found the correct answers.

SUNDAY: Into which musical work was a special part expressly written for the then new instrument, the Celeste?

MONDAY: Which composer came by his death from apoplexy through drinking the entire contents of a bottle of brandy before his wife could stop him?

TUESDAY: Which song was first introduced to radio listeners in New Zealand?

THURSDAY: Which two sea songs were written and composed by the "Laureate of Empire" and a "Master of the King's Music"?

FRIDAY: Which song was composed by a famous English composer, whilst he sat at the bedside of his dying brother?

SATURDAY: Which song was written around a pretty blonde American singer with whom the organist-composer-conductor fell in love and married?

Recorded Personalities In Caricature (21)

WHO IS HE?—He was born in West Hartlepool in 1876 and is the finest player of the viola in England, and has inspired many of our modern composers. He began by being a pianist (as a boy of six, in velvet and lace collar). Wanting to play in string quartets with fellow pupils at the Royal Academy of Music, he couldn't find a viola-playing partner. He decided to take up the instrument himself, and three weeks later when the quartet played to the Principal, Sir Alexander Mackenzie, the latter forecast a good future for the young viola player. This has proved a true prophecy.

land by the famed French cabaret singer, Lucienne Boyer?

WEDNESDAY: What do we eagerly look for at the end of the winter?
