- 8.10 Kirsten Flagstad (soprano), in songs by Grieg:
 "I Love Thee"
 "A Dream"
 "The Swan"

The father of Kirsten Flagstad was an orchestral conductor, and her mother a pianist and opera coach. She started as a child to study the piano, but at the age of ten and entirely on her own, she taught herself the whole role of Elsa from "Lohengrin." Looking for new worlds to conquer she shortly added that of Aida to her repertoire. At her confirmation party she sang arias from these operas, and a far-seeing friend urged that the child should have proper training. The world now knows the result which followed the taking of this advice.
