THE ORPHEUS SEXTET was in the programme to be broadcast from 2YA on Wednesday (June 12) of this week. Mrs. D. Maude (left, standing), is the organiser, and the other members are, (from left to right, standing): Mesdames M. Procter, B. Goodwin, D. Pole. Seated: Mesdames I. Adams, M. Wright

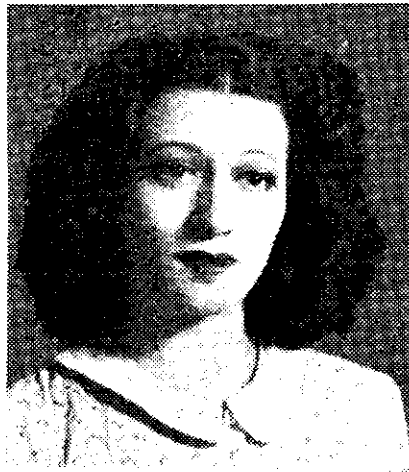

THE DUNEDIN HARMONY FOUR were in the 4YA programme on Tuesday of this week (June 11). All four are well known locally, and among other things take a prominent part in the activities of the Royal Dunedin Male Choir. They are: C. Wallis (tenor), W. Lane (second tenor), G. R. Wentworth (bass), and J. Paterson, L.R.S.M. (second bass)

MAX SCHEREK will be playing with the 4YA Concert Orchestra in the concert programme from Dunedin's station at 8 p.m. on Thursday, June 20. He is a native of Dunedin, but went to school in Melbourne and studied music at the Melbourne University Conservatorium. Later he went to Leipzig and Prague for advanced study, and returned to teach in Dunedin in 1907

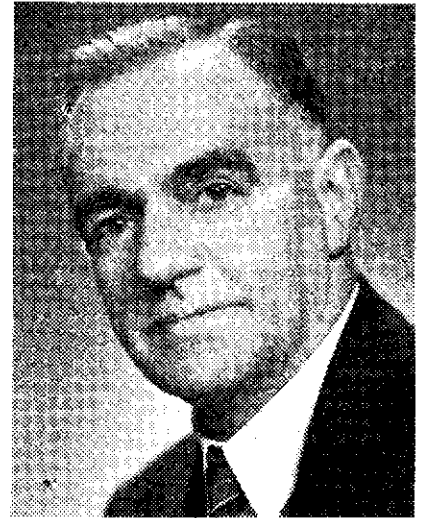

PEOPLE IN THE PROGRAMMES

RAMAI TE MIHA, whose singing is no less musical than her name, is to sing from 1YA next week, on Wednesday, June 19, at 9.39 p.m. One of her numbers will be a lullaby specially composed for her by Alfred Hill. Our photograph shows her in the role of Ariana in the New Zealand-made film "Rewi's Last Stand"
