

LOOK BEFORE YOU LISTEN

Some Suggestions For The Week

Commemorative Choral
Work + In The Land Of
The Pharaohs + Science
And Public Health + The Animals Of Australia

THE CONTRIBUTION of science to public health will be the subject of a talk, "Science in its Relation to Health in Cities," by Professor C. E. Hercus (above), to be heard from 4YA on June 18 at 7.30 p.m.

INDEX

Aunt Daisy ..	44-45	Mrs. Chamberlain ..	9
Boxing Notes	55	Music from the Past	8
Carpets up for Crowther ..	11	Programmes:
Chart	28-29	Commercial ..	49-53
Did You Hear?	10	National	13-41
Do You Know?	27	Overseas	54
DX Notes	55	Puzzles	16, 33
Editorial	12	Shortwaves	7
Films	30	Sport	34
Flanders Fields	3	Static	6
Florrie Forde	37	Things to Come ..	6-7
Happiness Club	48	Unbroken Records ..	8
Highlights	5	War Diary	2-4
"Inspiration"	47	War in the Ether ..	11
In the Programmes ..	20	Wellington Festival ..	24
Letters	12	When is a Pint? ..	9
Misery Club	47	Women	42-43
		Your Garden	41
		ZB News	46

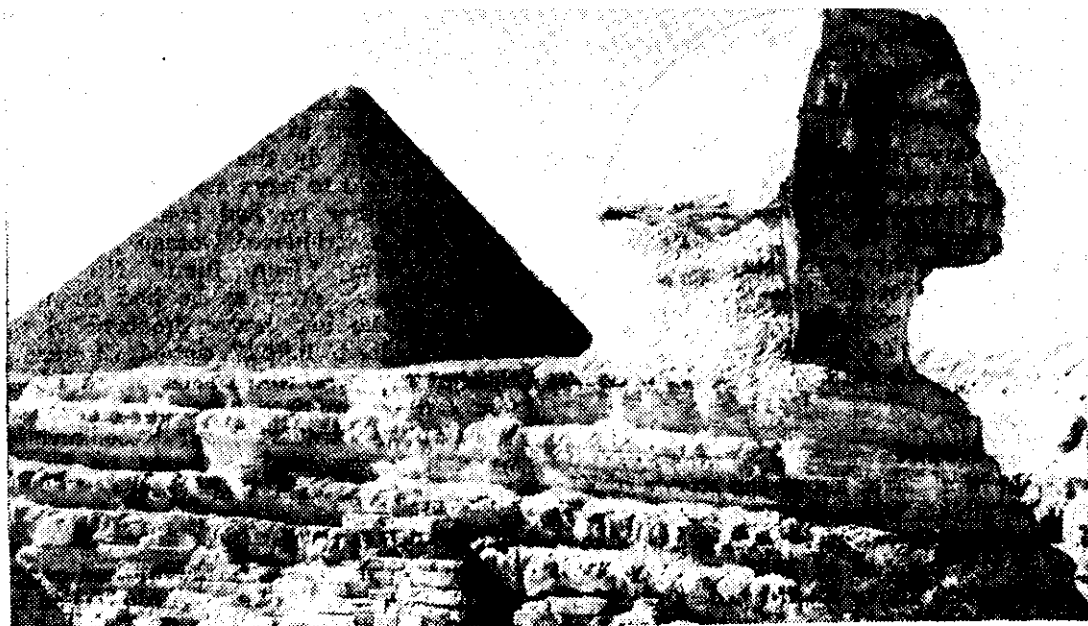

A FEW YEARS AGO any schoolboy would have picked the kangaroo as Australia's typical animal, but of late the koala has become a feature of Commonwealth publicity. However, doubtless listeners will hear about both in the talk "Australia's Animals," by Alatheia Solomons, from 2YA on June 20, at 10.45 a.m.

Spencer Digby photograph

STANLEY OLIVER: He is to conduct the first public presentation of his own commemorative Centennial work, "A Delightful Land," at the Wellington festival celebrity concert on June 22. Station 2YA will broadcast the concert, beginning at 8.0 p.m.

EGYPT, as a key-point in Mediterranean strategy and the area in which the Anzacs are stationed, is much in the minds of New Zealanders these days. For those who want to learn something of the land in which our troops are stationed, there is a travel-talk from 2YD on June 18, at 9.20 p.m.