Mehul

The name of this Overture, properly speaking, is "Young Henry's Hunt," which once prefaced an opera of that name by Etienne Nicholas Mehul (1763-1817). It is one of the twenty-four operas the composer wrote over a period of amazing industry lasting seventeen years. Only the Overture of "Young Henry's Hunt" survives, and it will be found to be a merry piece which describes its subject largely by the use of actual old tunes and calls for the hunting horn.
