8.30 EVENING PROGRAMME:

The Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam, "Alceste" Overture. Gluck

Although Gluck was a German, and in many ways a typical German, he spent a great part of his life in Paris, identifying himself closely with the national spirit. He acted for a time as singing master to Marie Antoinette, and had the advantage of her patronage as well as that of other influential people. But his work itself was striking, and valuable enough to make its own way; it marks, indeed, an important milestone in the history of opera.
