Like many another singer, Harold Williams (born in Sydney in 1893) began as a boy soprano, and was able to buy his first suit of clothes out of his earnings. This was when he was eleven, and he was very proud of this because his parents at that time were living in rather straitened circumstances. Like most healthy boys, Harold was, however, much more interested in sport. In 1913 he played for New South Wales against the All Blacks and in cricket he played for the famous Sydney Waverley Club.
