- 9.28 London Symphony Orchestra, "King Lear" Overture Berlioz
- Berlioz was a keen lover of Shakespeare, and this overture is a musical reflection of the tragedy of "King Lear." We can hear the outline of the story in it, from "every inch a king" to Lear's last words, "Pray you, undo this button: thank you," the sad tale of filial weakness and the poor old king's madness. The overture contains some of the most inspired music that Berlioz ever wrote.
