

ANZAC DAY EPIC

AT 7.30 P.M.

THE NATIONAL AND COMMERCIAL RADIO STATIONS
OF NEW ZEALAND WILL PRESENT

BRITISH STARS IN HOLLYWOOD

These are the stars you will hear:

- ★ RONALD COLMAN
- ★ LAURENCE OLIVIER
- ★ HERBERT MARSHALL
- ★ SIR CEDRICK HARDWICKE
- ★ MARY PICKFORD
- ★ DIONNE QUINTUPLETS
- ★ MADELEINE CARROLL
- ★ VIVIENNE LEIGH
- ★ C. AUBREY SMITH
- ★ ANNA NEAGLE
- ★ FREDDIE BARTHOLOMEW

and many others.

The actual recording of the magnificent Patriotic Programme recently broadcast by the British colony in Hollywood from all CANADIAN and AMERICAN STATIONS.

Presented in New Zealand for the ANZAC DAY Provincial Patriotic Telephone Appeal.

This is a once in a life-time broadcast! Not for hundreds of thousands of pounds could the services of all these British Stars be bought; but for Britain and the Empire they gave them free. Each great artist has composed and arranged a part . . . and what a part! Here is more than superlative entertainment . . . here are also words from the heart, moving and unforgettable . . . glimpses of England—her songs, her poets . . . her character

. . . it is stuff to make you thrill that you are British . . . it will live as the greatest radio programme ever presented anywhere!

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Thanks are due to Mr. C. P. MacGregor, of Hollywood, who had the programme produced and recorded; to Mr. Sinclair Carruthers, of Carlton-Carruthers Ltd., who gave it as a donation; to the National and Commercial Broadcasting Services, and to the staff of the P. & T. Department, without whose generous aid this appeal would be impossible.
