To-day's conditions have cut New Zealand off from overseas sources and we are now dependent upon our local talent for the illustration of limitless catalogues, articles, showcards, advertisements, etc. There is a big and growing demand for men and women qualified in any branch of art, now and after the war.

PERSONAL TUITION

The Druleigh College of Art is situated in Auckland. You don't have to send your work overseas and wait months before the criticism and advice is returned to you. With the Druleigh College you receive advice by return mail. Qualified art instructors supervise your work personally and take a personal interest in your rapid advancement, making sure that you grasp every fundamental thoroughly and that you don't slip over important points as students are often tempted to do when they are receiving instruction from overseas.

ART SECRETS REVEALED

Art, like salesmanship, is not purely a natural accomplishment. It is true, many artists—and some of them world famed—have trained themselves, but the process has taken many many long and weary years. What these men did by incessant toil YOU can achieve in a few months under the expert guidance of the Druleigh instructors. The latest techniques are exposed and explained in simple minute detail. Shortcuts are revealed which will amaze you by the simplicity and speed with which you can get results. Within a few weeks you will find yourself improving out of all recognition... because art is essentially a matter of training. The student with a keen natural flair certainly has the "edge" on the average.

A WORTHY CAREER

Not only is accomplishment in art one of the most thrilling and creative hobbies that a person can invest himself with, but it opens up a career worthy of the highest intelligence and ambition. Once a person becomes proficient in any of the branches of art, he or she becomes his own master. No great capital outlay is required to commence in business as a free lance. You can step from position to position as the spirit moves, because art is an accomplishment of which no man can rob you and one which is always in great demand.
