

AN AMAZING BOOK for MOTHERS

At last a book that answers the million and one problems that face every Mother to-day. Deals with every conceivable subject and covers children of all ages: Infancy, Pre-School Age, School Age, Adolescence, All Ages, and Parenthood. 692 Pages—130 contributors—29 photographic illustrations. Quick reference alphabetical Subject Index, and Table Contents grouped in Age Interests. Brings you the most modern knowledge on every phase of child-rearing and development.

The MOTHER'S ENCYCLOPAEDIA

SPECIAL MAIL ORDER OFFERS OF OTHER BOOKS.

BOOKS FOR THE HOME.

Wartime Cooking in New Zealand. 1/-, postage 1d.
Wartime Poultry Keeping 1/-, postage 1d.
Wartime Gardening 1/-, postage 1d.
More Fun at Your Party 1/9, postage 1d.
What Shall I Do? (First Aid) 6d. postage 1d.
The set of five books for 5/- post paid.

NOVELS for Holiday Reading.

Castles in the Soil. Beryl McCarthy. 7/6, postage 5d.
A Poor Scholar. C. R. Allen. 4/6, postage 4d.
Hedge-Sparrow. C. R. Allen. 4/6, postage 4d.
The House of Templemore. Pat Lawlor. 7/6, postage 4d.
Valiant Love. L. M. Myers. 6/-, postage 4d.
Set of five books, 30/- post paid.

Special for the Children.

Maori History and Legends, comprising 26 profusely illustrated booklets, dealing with Maori History and Legends and Adventure Stories of early New Zealand.

Maori and Pakeha; Legends of Maoriland; The Birds and Stars of Maoriland; The Pioneering at Tauranga; Days with the Old Force; Marsden, Pioneer and Peacemaker; The Maori and His First Printed Books; First New Zealand Christmases; Maoriland Adventures; Legends of Maoriland; The Fish of Maoriland; History by Travel; Old Pohai; I Remember, 1848-1866; Perils in Otago Waters; Otakou—Early Days in and about Otago Harbour; The Games of Ao-tea-Roa; Deeds of Daring in New Zealand; Pitama; The Wreck of the Osprey; Out of the Mountains; A Trader in Cannibal Land.

The 26 booklets are valued at 15/-, but as a special offer, the complete series are now offered for 10/- Postage Paid.

SIMPLIFIED ORDERING.

When ordering any of the books, or sets of books listed above in this panel, please cut out the entire advertisement, put a "tick" alongside each item(s) you want and then send the entire advertisement with the total remittance (including postage) to A. H. & A. W. Reed, Publishers, P.O. Box 2, Te Aro, Wellington. Be sure to enclose your name and full postal address.

Only use the coupon alongside if you want "The Mother's Encyclopaedia" on its own.

Amongst the 130 Contributors to this amazing modern book are: Eminent Doctors, Psychologists, Child Welfare Experts, Sociologists, Nutritional Experts, Health Educationists, Obstetric Consultants, Pathologists, etc., etc.

Some of the important subjects in the various sections of this amazing book are as follows:—

Infancy:—Includes Laying; Baby Feeding; Appetites of Babies; Prevention of sickness in the first year; Weaning Baby; Constipation in Babies; Respiratory Diseases in Babies, etc., etc., etc.

Pre-School Age:—Meat in small child's diet; Sleep Routine; Night Terrors; Feeding Problems—when a child won't eat; Control of Bodily Functions; Self Reliance; Manners; Habit Training, etc., etc.

School Age:—Psychology of School-Age Child; Creative Education; Hobbies; Pets; Schools and how to choose; School Failure and its causes; Truth and Falsehood; Youthful chivalry, etc., etc., etc.

Adolescence:—Adolescent Boys and Girls; Food needs; Delinquency and its causes; Friction in the Family; Home School Co-operation; Sport for adolescents; Love and Marriage—what to tell adolescent children, etc., etc., etc.

All Ages:—Children's Diseases—including measles, meningitis, whooping cough; Height-Weight-Age tables all ages; Masturbation; Obedience; Personality and character training; Religious training; Stuttering; Friendships; First Aid; Discipline; Physical development; Tooth Building Foods; Vitamins; Sex Education; The Spoiled child; Jealousy, etc., etc.

Parenthood:—Childbirth; Expectant Mothers; Adoption; Health for Mothers; Marriage rules for happiness; Mothers' aftercare; Parental Influence; Twins, etc., etc., etc.

SPECIAL OFFER!

"The Mother's Encyclopaedia" is an amazing book — so frank, so modern, such a source of vital information that you'll find it worth its weight in gold. As a special introduction feature we now offer you a copy of "The Mother's Encyclopaedia", together with two games and a jigsaw for the children—the games are "Bedlam", a game that creates riots of laughter, and "Churchill", the latest novelty card game for children; and a lovely 80-piece jigsaw puzzle. All for 20/-, Post Free.

20/-
POST PAID.

And a Children's Story Book FREE with every Order.

To MESSRS. A. H. & A. W. REED,
Publishers,
P.O. Box 2, Te Aro, Wellington (182 Wakefield Street).

Please send me my copy of "The Mother's Encyclopaedia" together with the special offer items and the FREE Children's Story Book. I enclose my remittance of 20/-.

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

LIST.