

by the loveliest isles on earth

In These Shades
Crimson. Hibiscus.
Tropic. Magic Night.
Flame. Sunkist.
Cyclamen. Coral.
Refills available at 1/9.
Made in New Zealand by
WILFRED OWEN LTD.,
104-106 Victoria Street, Christchurch.
CHEMISTS AND STORES EVERYWHERE.

JOHNSON'S RADIO COLLEGE

(Now under management of McKenzie's Engineering Academy)

Qualify for your Radio Serviceman's Exam, or Commercial Radio Operator's Exam, by Johnson's up-to-date Correspondence Course. Success guaranteed. Pay as you learn. Write or call for full particulars.

23 Aitken Street :: Wellington

Windows sparkle in a jiffy with
BONIGLO

The easy way to spring clean windows—mirrors—all glassware... with BONIGLO! Just a rub... a polish... and see the sparkle! Use Boniglo in your home for brighter, better cleaning. Boniglo is in powder, liquid or cake form. Ask your grocer or store for BONIGLO.

Mirrors, Glassware, easily kept brilliant with BONIGLO

PEOPLE IN THE PROGRAMMES

ALICE VINSEN (contralto) will sing from 3YA on Monday, November 29

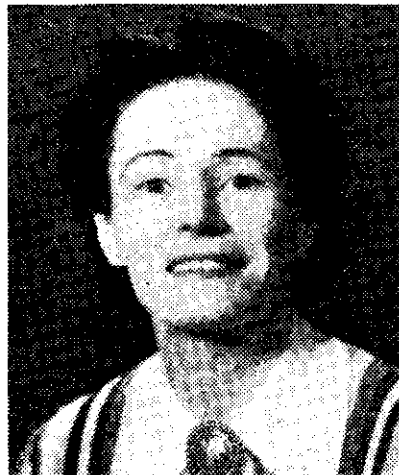

BBC photograph

Above: SUB-LIEUT. W. BOWE, of Wellington, speaking in the BBC Pacific service programme, "Anzacs Calling New Zealand"

DAPHNE CHANDLER (soprano) will present a studio recital from 4YA on December 4

Left: ULU HANCOCK who is the star of "Josephine," the New Zealand radio serial heard from the ZB stations

Right: PETI PARATA, who will give a recital of Maori songs from 1YA on Saturday, December 4

Below: The 1943 CHOIR OF THE SOUTHLAND BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL with the conductor, Kennedy Black. The choir was heard recently from 4YZ

