Stanley Black, one time conductor of the BBC Dance Orchestra, has had a varied career in the world of popular music. He was associated with such orchestras as Harry Roy's and Bert Ambrose's as pianist, and prior to the war turned to orchestration. He later formed an orchestra to interpret his arrangements and his effective piano renditions. This talented musician will be heard from 4ZB tonight at 9.24.

At 7.30 this evening, 2ZA will present the first broadcast of "They Lived Dangerously."
