Under his father's guidance, Tommy Dorsey studied and played first the trumpet and then the trombone. He has been associated with the majority of the well-known dance orchestras; in fact, he played with no less than 22 orchestras in a 12 months period. With his brother Jimmy, he organised the Dorsey brothers orchestra in 1934, and after this formed his own band and soon gained national success. Recordings by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra will be heard from 4ZB at 9.15 p.m.

At half past ten this morning, 2ZA will broadcast a further selection of light music by an Australian vocal group, "The Guardsmen."
