More Prisoners at the Bar

LISTENERS whose appetite for court drama is only whetted by Edgar Lustgarten's Prisoner at the Bar will shortly be served with another helping weekly. This time it will come from the ZB stations and 2ZA in the form of a Grace Gibson production entitled For the Defence. The series of half-hour shows features such legal giants as Patrick Hastings, Clarence Darrow, Samuel Leibowitz and Sir Edward Carson, and the conduct of such famous trials as those of Sir Roger Casement, Jean Pierre Vaquier, the acid bath murderer, and Lord Haw Haw. By way of comparison with Lustgarten's show there will also be the case of Dr. Crippen. For the Defence will play from the ZB stations and 2ZA at 9.0 p.m. on Saturdays, beginning April 3.
