Tin Pan Alley, that melody lane of yesterday, is located at West Forty-sixth Street, New York City. The original Tin Pan Alley is now a thing of the past, for most of today's successful song writers occupy streamlined offices. However, there was a time when business there was conducted in basements and shabby one-roomed offices, where congregated song writers, song publishers, musicians, song pluggers, beautiful women and famous actors. America's greatest song writers of yesterday and today contributed their best and biggest song hits to Tin Pan Alley, and some of these hits will be heard from 4ZB tonight at 9.30.

Commencing at 11.15 this morning, 2ZA will broadcast commentaries on the second day of the Manawatu Racing Club's Autumn Meeting.
