Widely renowned as one of today's great violinists, Yehudi Menuhin has played on concert platforms the world over. His exquisite technique and tone are preserved on many recordings, some of which are featured at 5.45 today from 1ZB.

The late Thomas Waller, known to the entertainment world as "Fats," was one of the outstanding coloured rhythm kings of America. He was born in New York in 1904, and his grandfather, Adolph Waller, a celebrated German concert violinist, wanted him to enter the Church. But "Fats" Waller ran away and found work in a cabaret. In his spare time he turned his hand to song writing. He has been described as a pianist, organist, composer and vocalist, but no one would ever seriously accuse "Fats" of being a singer. "Fats" Waller at the piano will be presented by 4ZB at 4 o'clock.
