Losing both parents when very young, Freddie Martin grew up in an Ohio orphanage where he learned music and developed a taste for the tenor saxophone. Encouraged by Guy Lombardo, he organised his own band, which, after five years' experience in theatres and night clubs was launched in 1930. Since then his organisation has been a force in American dance music and many of his recordings have received top honours. Some of these are featured from 12B today at 4.15 in "Thank You, Freddie Martin."

Patrice Munsel, singing star of opera, radio, films, television and recordings, will be featured this afternoon from 2ZA at 4.45.
