Frank Chacksfield is from Sussex, and first met the British public at the age of 14, as a church organist. He worked in a law office, but soon drifted into a local dance band. He started broadcasting for the BBC, playing the piano and singing, while recuperating from an illness in a Scottish hospital. After that came success. Tonight at 9.30 4ZB will present recordings by Frank Chacksfield and his Orchestra.

Every Saturday afternoon during the winter, 2ZA broadcasts a rugby commentary, starting at approximately five minutes past three, from the Palmerston North Showgrounds.
