

The difference between this...

and
this...

is often this...

JOHNSON'S BABY POWDER

Silky-soft, with a fresh, delicate scent—Johnson's Baby Powder is such a pleasant way to chase away prickles and chafes, keep baby comfy and contented. This Baby Powder does not contain starch, zinc or other ingredients likely to harm baby's delicate skin.

JOHNSON'S BABY CREAM

Mild, pure, made specially to agree with delicate skin—Johnson's Baby Cream helps prevent irritations, soothe and smooth baby's skin after bath and at diaper changes.

JOHNSON'S BABY SOAP

Mild and soothing, softens and beautifies as it cleanses. Specially prepared for Baby's tender skin, but is extensively used by adults.

Johnson & Johnson
(NEW ZEALAND) LIMITED

N.Z. Distributors: Potter & Birks (N.Z.) Ltd., 14 Lower Federal St. Auckland.

A reproduction of the Johnson Baby Powder showcard printed on special paper without advertising, and suitable for framing will be sent on request. Enclose 3d. in stamps to cover cost of packing and postage to Box 1009, Auckland.

ASK ME ANOTHER

BEAMING broadly, Australia's popular radio star Jack Davey is seen here preparing to make life awkward for his team of questioners in the radio parlour game Ask Me Another. Broadcast by the ZB stations and 2ZA every Thursday at 9.0 p.m., the show presents four bright people who, in a limited number of questions, have to guess the identity of someone or something known only to Jack Davey and the radio audience. The panel consists of Carolyn Berntsen, Elizabeth Riddell, Keith Smith and Jim Russell. Carolyn comes from Tucson, Arizona, and works at a Sydney speech clinic. Her hobby is reading books of international affairs. Jim is an artist of 28 years' standing, perhaps best known for his comic-strip "The Potts." In his spare time he paints landscapes in oils. Keith Smith is a professional radio man who spends much of his time wandering about with a portable tape recorder collecting subjects for programmes. Like the subjects the panel must guess, Elizabeth Riddell is something of a mystery.

JACK DAVEY

School Holiday Broadcasts

CHILDREN attending primary schools will be having a break from their lessons during the next few weeks, and to help them enjoy the holidays—or, if you like, to make the holidays more bearable for harassed mothers—NZBS Broadcasts to Schools will again be presenting a School Holiday Programme. This time it will be conducted by Lesley Farrelly a former School Broadcasts officer who is now in charge of the Children's Session from 4YA. Taken on link by all YA and YZ stations, it will be heard at 9.4 a.m. from Monday to Friday on both weeks of the holidays. It will start by giving young listeners a general picture of what they are to hear and will include stories and songs, quiz sessions, hobbies (making things from corks), rhymes for juniors, and travel talks. Among the new items that should be of special interest is Let's Sing Together, conducted by Freda Boyce, at present with the Australian National Opera; the travel talks (one by Ngita Woodhouse about a journey to Alice Springs and the other by Bruce Henderson about Spain); and a reading from The Thurber Carnival, of James Thurber's story "The Day the Dam Broke"—which should have more than a few adult listeners.

N.Z. LISTENER, MAY 7, 1954.