In the last few years, Perry Como has made no appearance on the American stage, but next August he has his first London date at the Palladium. Tonight at 6.15 he sings from 3ZB.

Twelve years ago two members of the Vienna Conservatoire formed a piano act. They had both studied at the Conservatoire, and their repertoire was extensive enough to appeal to serious music lovers and jazz enthusiasts alike. Today they are still together—a record for any two-piano act and their repertoire consists of over 2000 pieces. The two pianists are known as Rawicz and Landauer, and will be heard from 4ZB at 4.30.

Included in 2ZA's "Country Digest" at 12.34, is an interview with E. G. Griffiths, newly-appointed Agricultural Attache to the United Kingdom High Commissioner in N.Z.

It's simply a amazing value for $89.10.00!
