Rosemary Clooney hails from Kentucky. After singing with her sister Betty in a duo called the Clooney Sisters, she was booked by Tony Pastor as solo vocalist with his orchestra. Then Mitch Miller, Columbia's artist and repertoire man, took her in hand. At the same time she signed a Hollywood contract and has appeared in "The Stars Are Singing." A programme featuring Rosemary Clooney may be heard from 3ZB at 10.0 this evening.

During the last few years Fred Hartley has divided his time between Australia and England. Radio listeners also enjoy his recordings, and a group of these will be broadcast from 4ZB at 4.15.

The talented Auckland vocal combination "The Knaves" will be featured from 2ZA in a selection of recordings at 4.15.

This is REALISM! Vivid and arresting! Mullard's ASTONISHINGLY NEW REPRODUCTION TECHNIQUE FULL PHONIC LISTENING

Have you ever heard the breathing of the announcer? Or the return of the key on a piano after the note has been struck? If you haven't, you've never experienced Mullard's FULL PHONIC LISTENING. The ultra realism of FULL PHONIC LISTENING is made possible by the very latest advances in valve design coming from the electronic laboratories of Mullard in London.
