A star of opera, radio and screen, Rise Stevens was born in New York City. She began to sing in a children's chorus. At the age of 17 Miss Stevens joined a small opera comique company and advanced to solo parts. After serious study Rise Stevens was auditioned in Paris and Zurich; George Szell, the conductor, offered to accompany her, and she was engaged as leading mezzo-soprano in Prague. She entered the Metropolitan in 1938, and has sung throughout Europe and America. 4ZB will broadcast songs by Rise Stevens at 9.15 p.m.
