At 9 o'clock the title of tonight's programme from 2ZB is "From Our Long-Playing Library." The new 33 long-playing discs are a prominent feature of 2ZB Sunday and evening programmes. The new recording process is revolutionary and allows uninterrupted works of long duration to be broadcast.

A film which brings about a return to popularity of a musical instrument is something of a rarity, but such was the case with the film "The Third Man." The instrument in question was the zither, and the famous recording by Anton Karas of "The Third Man" theme was the forerunner of a large number of recordings introducing this instrument. Zither melodies played by Anton Karas will be broadcast from 2ZA at 5.45.
