Walt Disney's first job in 1920 was making cartoon slides for screen advertisers. His first picture "Alice in Cartoonland" was a combination of live action and animation. It was a new idea and he was given a contract for six similar films. His first character was Oswald the Rabbit, then followed Mickey Mouse. His film "Steamboat Willie" was the first cartoon to be synchronised with sound and was an outstanding success. Fred Waring's Orchestra and Glee Club present songs from Walt Disney's films, tonight at 9.30 from 4ZB.

At 2 o'clock, popular American songwriter Johnny Mercer will be heard from 2ZA in a selection of his own compositions.
