An interesting contribution to the Women's Hour, from 1ZB today, is made by J. W. Matthews in "How the Garden Got Its Plants." In this informal talk today you'll hear something of "The Evolution of the Rose."

"Meet the Mansons" is an interesting and delightful story of N.Z. life. It is heard from 2ZB on Tuesdays and Wednesdays at 3.0 p.m.

Although Magdalene von Losch studied at a Berlin music school and showed talent as a violinist, she wanted to enter the Reinhardt dramatic training school; enrolling as Marlene Dietrich (her intended musical nom-de-plume) she first used the name which was to become famous both in Europe and America. At 10 o'clock this evening 3ZB will be featuring some vocal selections by Marlene Dietrich.
