It's a marvel to many how Mitch Miller manages to do as much as he does. He records, arranges, looks after new artists, and must be one of the busiest men in the record business. His Orchestra, noted for the excellence of the French horns, is heard from 2ZB at 9.45 this morning.

Paul Weston was born in Springfield, Mass., America, on March 12, 1912. He organised his first orchestra while still a student at Dartmouth College. In 1935 he joined Tommy Dorsey's Orchestra as an arranger, remaining for five years. Later he worked in the same capacity for Bob Crosby, and did many other orchestration for recording artists. In addition, he has conducted orchestras for a large number of radio programmes. "Melodies for Moonlight" is the title of Paul Weston's long-playing disc, to be heard from 4ZB at 9.30 p.m.

At 5.30 2ZA presents "Destination Venus," a further episode from the Rocky Starr space serial.
