Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.

A Milwaukee radio performer in his teens, Les Paul worked with the NBS in Chicago before entering the army in 1941. In May, 1951, he and his wife, Mary Ford, began to record as a duo. Some of their recordings are featured from 1ZB at 4.0.

When Percy Grainger was 18 years old he made several appearances in London as pianist with the Royal Philharmonic and the Halle Orchestras. During this time he became a friend of Edvard Grieg, through whose influence he turned to folk music. Some of his arrangements may be heard from 3ZB at 6 o'clock.

Percy Faith was born in Toronto, Canada. At the age of seven he began studying the violin, and soon added the piano to his musical accomplishments. At ten he gave his first concert, and later played in movie houses, accompanying the silent films. In 1931 he formed his own orchestra, and soon became staff arranger and conductor for the CBC. In 1940 he went to the United States as conductor of two major weekly broadcasts. Percy Faith and his Orchestra may be heard from 4ZB today at 4.15.
