This BBC programme reflects the passing musical and dramatic pageant of one of London's great theatres, and recalls scenes, people and incidents from its long and colourful career. The history of tragedy, comedy, drama, musical romance, revue and pantomime is seen through "The Passing Pageant of Her Majesty's Theatre."

Broadcasts of particular interest to be heard today from 2ZA include at 9.30 a.m., the Levin Municipal Band; at 4.30 a further studio recital by Ray Sutherland and his Moana Strings; at 6 o'clock, "Palmerston North Civic Review," the monthly programme about the city's local body activities; and at 6.15 a studio recital of songs by Handel, presented by Alan Wilks (baritone).
